Filed: January 3, 2025

Bridget C. McCullough, Muller Brazil, LLP, Dresher, PA, for Petitioner.

Rachelle Bishop, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On August 9, 2023, Marlene Swords filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) after receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on February 10, 2022. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that she had no history of pain, inflammation, or dysfunction in her left shoulder, that pain occurred within 48 hours after receipt of the vaccine, pain and reduced range of motion was limited to the shoulder in which the vaccination was administered, and that no other condition or abnormality has been identified to explain petitioner’s shoulder pain. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 27, 2024, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, Respondent has indicated that based on the medical records that petitioner has suffered the residual effects of her condition for more than six months and that she has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act. Id. at 4.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
